She pointed at the mountain and smiled. She looked at her companion, then. "We have to finish the work here," he told her, and she looked at him mildly. All animals were patient, but the patience of the horse kind was wonderful, being freely given. Dogs were loyal, but there was more of obedience in it. Dogs were hierarchs, dividing the world into lords and commoners. Horses were all lords. They agreed to collude. He remembered walking among the great, plumed feet of cart horses, fearless. The comfort of their breath on his head. A long time ago. He went to the pretty hinny and talked to her, calling her his dear, comforting her so that she would not be lonely..What she had on was all in large eyes, peacock eyes, and the eyes blinked. It was no illusion --."And who shall stand against him?" said the Patterner. "I can only hide in my woods."
